MAJOR DALY'S REPLY TO ALGER Miles' Chief Surgeon Says Former Secretary's Recent Letter Was Another Misrepresentation.

during the Spanish war, has just returned to his home in this city from a hunting trip with General Miles. Concerning ex-Secretary of War Alger's recently published magazine article Dr. Daly said: "It seems to be a hodge podge of inaccuracles as to facts and the testimony I gave. What Mr. Alger calls my 'verbal of $50 for information regarding his wherestatements' and a 'single letter' was in abouts. The name of the chief of police fact just one typewritten official report to the commanding general of the army, and nouncement of the reward, although Chief it seems to me to have been a rather Donahue contends that this was done withefficient report in fulfilling its object, made out his authority. Wickenberg found Klusmanifest by the prompt abatement of the man's body about two weeks after his disissue of improper food to our armies. I appearance, partly hidden by brush and made the chemical analysis after my return drift wood, along the river bank below to my private laboratory in Pittsburg and South Omaha. His demand for the reward because there was no opportunity for such accurate chemical work in a military campaign in a foreign country, and I wanted to see whether or not I was correct. "The government chemical experts susained my analysis and in every detail, yet the 'Alger relief commission' suppressed this report of their own chemists, and merely said in their report to the public that inasmuch as Dr. Daly's analysis was not surtained by the government's experchemists he is not worthy of credence." The report written and signed by Chief Chemist Clarke and his assistants ought to refute any impeachment of my credibility. Fortunately I have the copy of the report of the government chemists in my possession, else it would have been a question of veracity as between Alger, his relief incident, is unfortunate. To me it seems another case of a man sitting down without a chair behind him." LA GLORIA COMPANY FAILS information leading to the discovery of Klusman's whereabouts City Attorney Connell contended that when a reward is offered in this way it is not for the return of a body, but for the return of the living person. "Edward Cucahy did not pay $25,000 to get back the body of his son," he insisted, "nor to have Daly, chief surgeon on General Miles' staff the boy returned to him blind, but he did pay the money to get the boy back, safe and sound.
